

Enrico Bruni

Managing Director,
Co-Head of Global Markets

Enrico Bruni is Managing Director, Co-Head of Global Markets at Tradeweb Markets, and a member of the firm's Executive Committee. He jointly oversees execution of Tradeweb's global markets strategy, including pursuing both organic and inorganic growth opportunities across products, geographies and the company's four client channels.

Over more than twenty years at Tradeweb, Bruni has been instrumental in the expansion of the company's international business, overseeing all activities outside of the U.S. He played a leading role in the development of our interest rate swaps platform in Europe and Asia, as well as ETFs, Bond Connect and Repo, among others. Bruni has been instrumental in the acquisition and integration of some of Tradeweb's largest acquisitions, including Institutional Cash Distributors (ICD) and Yieldbroker.

Prior to joining Tradeweb in 2002, Bruni held several business and product management positions at J.P. Morgan across the company's markets division, with a particular focus on the firm's electronic trading strategy.

Bruni holds a business management degree from Bocconi University in Milan.
